Project Description

To make an empirically rigorous and methodologically exercise, which will give an idea of the impact that policy decisions made today can have on the trajectory of citizen security in Latin America. It would identify the most likely destinations where the region appears to be headed, the factors that have the greatest impact in setting that course, and the decisions and events that can alter it in positive and negative ways. Identifying those trends and alternative scenarios would not be just a valuable policy making endeavor. It may also serve as a way to alert societies to potentially damaging trajectories, and thus mobilize social and political efforts to prevent negative outcomes.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
